

PITCH FIRST: OVERVIEW

Pitch First (PF) is one of the events organized by Management Society, a student organization of Master of Management of Universitas Prasetiya Mulya. PF is a 3-round business pitching competition for Indonesian undergraduate (Strata-1/ Bachelor's degree) students that are currently studying in Indonesia and/or overseas. This year, PF will be held on Saturday, 26th September 2020. In PF, selected participants passing the First Round will compete in the Semifinal and Final Rounds via ZOOM online meeting platform. The business ideas that would be presented by all participants could be business ideas that are not yet running, or business ideas that are already running (maximum 1-year running). Prospective participants of PF are to submit an original business plan about all kinds of aspects of business around the society. As such, every PF business plan must address a problem in the society and give solution(s) to answer it, inclusive of its social and environmental impacts.

PF objectives are:

1. To serve as a top-notch competition platform whereby Indonesian undergraduate students of all majors from various regions in Indonesia and overseas compete with, while learning from each other and foster strong networking among them;
2. To encourage Indonesian undergraduate students that are currently studying in Indonesia or overseas to develop and present their business plans in a national competition; and,
3. To contribute in the making of a young generation that possesses entrepreneurial, creative and innovative skills, and the courage to affect positive changes to the society at large.

Apart from serving as a platform for enriching learning experience, PF offers the successful participants monetary rewards, totaling IDR 23,000,000 (excluding taxes):

1.	1 st Winner	: IDR 10,000,000
2.	1 st Runner Up	: IDR 7,000,000
3.	2 nd Runner Up	: IDR 5,000,000
4.	Best Pitching	: IDR 1,000,000

PITCH FIRST: GENERAL RULES

1. To succeed in the First Round of PF competition, the business idea must be original. It may be based on a team's/participant's own business, or inspired by someone's existing business. If it is based on a participant's own existing business, the running of the business must not exceed one year by the registration date. Regardless of the source of the inspiration, the business idea proposed to the PF committee must clearly present innovation/ improvement/ added value to the existing business idea without any legal infringements (See Disclaimers).
2. The business idea may come from any fields, such as energy, food and farming, healthcare, robotics, biotech, education, transportation, housing, programming, psychology, engineering background, etc.
3. The business idea and matters underpinning each team's participation in PF competition must be geared towards sustainability while promoting harmony among various religions, races, and inter-groups that make Indonesia. A team that does not conform to this rule will be automatically disqualified.
4. A participating team may consist of one or two members, which must be clearly indicated in the registration period.
5. Each team consists of one or two Indonesian undergraduate students from the same or different universities (in Indonesia and/or overseas), preferably of different majors or background (e.g. business, management, engineering, design, etc).
6. Each team must submit all the requirements within the set deadline. (See Registration and Rounds).
7. Upon successful registration, teams will undergo a shortlisting selection by a board of adjudicators in the First Round.
8. The board of adjudicators will evaluate each team's qualifications, based on the Executive Summary and the quality of its video presentation, and shortlist 20 highest scoring teams that are deemed qualified for competing in the Semifinal Round.
9. The shortlisted 20 teams entering the Semifinal Round must prepare 2 sets of slides: one set for competing in the Semifinal Round (3 minutes presentation), the other for the Final Round (8 minutes presentation).
10. The shortlisted 20 teams must be present at the Technical Meeting Day via ZOOM that will be conducted one day prior to the start of the Semifinal Round.

PITCH FIRST: DISCLAIMERS

1. By submitting the registration form to the Pitch First 2020 Competition, each participant hereby affirms to the best of his or her knowledge and in good faith that the business idea being presented for PF competition is by all means original according to the definition expressly stated here in the General Rules. Therefore, should there arise in future any legal litigation against it by a third party, if at all, neither Universitas Prasetiya Mulya nor the Pitch First committee is to be held responsible.
2. Whilst the Pitch First Committee reserves the right to keep all the materials collected for and during this competition (e.g. copies of Executive Summary, sets of presentation slides, pitching videos, etc), ownership of each and every business idea presented by a team in the competition should remain to the particular person and/or team under which it was registered with the PF Committee.
3. As the event organizer, Pitch First Committee has the authority to make changes on the General Rules of Pitch First 2020 such as rundown, duration, rule, etc, in order to adjust with the situation if it is needed. Pitch First Committee will announce any changes on the General Rules of Pitch First 2020 to every participant at the latest during the technical meeting session.
